Thomas P. Wagner is a litigation and trial lawyer with more than 25 years experience. He concentrates his practice on the defense of casualty and product liability cases, as well as the defense of municipalities. His practice is focused primarily on the state and federal courts of Philadelphia and Eastern Pennsylvania and the surrounding Mid-Atlantic region.

Mr. Wagner was twice voted by his peers as one of the Top 100 Lawyers in Pennsylvania, a state with more than 56,000 attorneys. He was named a Pennsylvania Super Lawyer four times in succession. Mr. Wagner served as the 1999-2000 President of the Temple American Inn of Court in Philadelphia. He has written numerous articles and presentations on topics related to civil litigation. He also served as a senior editor of a three-volume guide to pre-trial practice in the Federal Courts of the Third Circuit published by Lawyers' Cooperative Publishing Company. He has served on the Executive Board of the Philadelphia Association of Defense Counsel, and he is a member of both the Defense Research Institute and the Pennsylvania Defense Institute.

Mr. Wagner graduated cum laude from Fairfield University in 1974 with a Bachelor's Degree in Politics. He attended Law School at St. John's University where he was an editor of the Law Review. Following law school, he served a clerkship with the Honorable J. William Ditter, Jr., United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. He joined Rawle & Henderson at the end of his clerkship in 1980, and served for over a decade on Rawle & Henderson's Executive Committee. Mr. Wagner joined Marshall, Dennehey, Warner, Coleman & Goggin in 2007 as a shareholder in the firm's Casualty Practice Group. Mr. Wagner is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and New York.

AMENDED AFFIDAVIT OF THOMAS P. WAGNER, ESQUIRE

Thomas P. Wagner, Esquire, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and states as follows:

1. I am counsel for plaintiffs in the above-captioned action. My firm's records show three outstanding and unpaid invoices for legal services totaling $47,657.79. I am informed that an outside auditing vendor has recommended reduction of one of these invoices by $1,072.23. My firm's records also show unbilled time of $1950.00 through February 12, 2008. The total outstanding, therefore, is $49,607.79.¹

¹ In my prior affidavit, the total outstanding was $36,497.79. That total included $30,698.94 in outstanding and unpaid invoices for legal services. In addition, it included $4,562.50 in unbilled time and unbilled disbursements of $1,236.35 through January 24, 2008. Since the time of that affidavit, a new invoice has been issued in the amount of $16,958.85 for fees and disbursements through February 4, 2008. That invoice includes the $4562.50 in previously unbilled time and $1236.35 in previously unbilled disbursements, as well as additional time of $11,160.00. At this time, my firm's records also show unbilled time of $1950.00 through February 12, 2008.

2. These charges as well as those reflected in the Affidavit of Jeffrey Frock, are fair and reasonable charges for the services rendered.

Thomas P. Wagner, Esquire

Sworn to and subscribed before me this

15th day of February, 2008
